PRINCIPAL'S SALUTATORIAN

Dear Students,

Due to the insensibility of our most revered editor, the principals message was lost not once, not twice, but three times, upon informing Mr. B. Russell, Principal that his message was again lost, his personal aide-de-camp, a Mr. L. Vey was summoned and we were removed in a most undignified manner from the office. Having suffered broken bones and battered pride we, the yearbook staff disavow any responsibility for the lost message.

Thank-you.

The Planet of Dishes

While I was walking along my grandfathers farm in Stephenville I saw something coming towards me. It looked like a gravy bowl. It came nearer and soon landed, I ducked behind a bush and watched carefully. The door of the gravy bowl opened and four green men walked out! They were about the size of a grasshopper. They started to look around the trees and the plants and started talking to each other. I couldn't hear what they were saying so I began to move closer to them but as I did one of them spotted me. The next thing I knew I was as small as they were, on board their gravy bowl, and going to their planet called Dishes.

I started to talk to the men and learned their names were Cup, Saucer, Plate, and Mug. I burst out laughing when they told me their names because they were called after dishes. They didn't think Daphne was so good either so they called me Tray. I went along with it just for fun. When we got to their planet, it looked strange to see houses made out of upside-down bowls, but I didn't mind because this was a new adventure for me. The little men took me to their king and he asked me questions and held a feast in my honour. I was very excited and before long I was tired and sleepy. I asked Cup, Saucer, Plate, and Mug to take me home and they agreed.

When I got back on the farm where they found me they hit me with a ray and I was tall again. I said good-bye to the men and said I hoped to see them again, then I went back to the house and told grandfather about my adventure. He said I must have gone to sleep and had a dream, but if I did go to sleep it sure was a fun dream.

Don't Ever Thrust A Dog

Second Place

Once upon a time there was a little girl and her name was Mary. She wanted a dog. So she asked her mother if she could have a dog. Her mother said go and ask your father. She went and asked her father he said yes. I'll get you one at the pet shop tomorrow on my way from work.

Mary said I want a brown and white one. OK said her father. The next morning Mary told her father not to forget to get the dog. That evening when her father came home from work. Mary ran to meet him. She asked him if he had the dog he said no. How come you didn't get me a dog. Because I forgot to get it. Surprice! It's in the car. Mary ran to the car and got the dog. I love my dog, said Mary.

She was having fun with her dog. Her mother called to her. She ran to the house to see what her mother wanted. Her mother said it's time to go to bed.

Mary said to her mother could my dog to in my room too. Yes said her mother. Mary ran out on the porch and whistled the dog ran to her. The dog went to her bedroom with Mary. Mary put her slippers by the side of the bed. And got in the bed the dog jumped up on the bed too. Mary's mother said good night Mary. They both went to sleep. Late that night the dog woke up and jumped down off the bed. He saw the slippers and began to bark and tear up the slippers. The barking woke up Mary. Mary looked to see what the dog was barking at. She saw that the dog was tearing up her slippers she didn't care. Because the slippers were old. It's all right said Mary. I won't ever punish you because I love you.

A Home For A Slave

A young girl works hard in a field, They feed her stale bread and water And call it a meal

She's picked so much cotton Her fingers are sore And she dreams of a day When she'll pick cotton no more

The slaves are controlled with The crack of a whip And she hears a slash and a scream and feels her heart skip.

Late at night when she's all alone She longingly thinks of her African home

And she dreams of Canada A free land faraway She says to herself I'll get there someday Then one night escape is planned

Winner

Ten negroes cry we must Leave this land

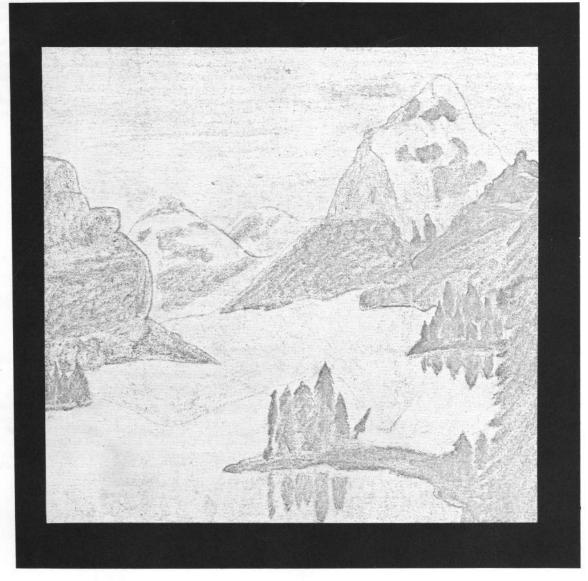

The trip to Canada
Was not an easy one
But they found their reward
When the journey was done
you'll still see a black girl
Working hard in a field
But now she'll get a proper meal

The field she works in is her families land
She never again be controlled by a whip or a white man

As she walks happily home She sees a bird in a tree She says isn't it wonderful bird In Canada we're free

SCHOOL CLOSED

This year school will be closed because all of the teachers are gone to other jobs and Mr. Russell can't find anymore teachers.

No one knows why the teachers have gone and some people think they know what jobs they're at. There isn't much work around, but all the teachers got a job. Miss Proudfoot and Mr. Baker, and Mr. Langor have gone to another school because their salary was 17% lower than the national average. There is a saying that Mr. Grandy and Mr. Stringer have gone weight-lifting.

Miss Thorne, Miss Carter, Mrs. Whalen, and Mrs. Vey are stewardesses on airplanes. Mrs. Green is secretary of Mayor Dorothy Wyatt. Mr. Osmond went long distance running and Mrs. Drodge, Mrs. Jacobs, Miss Maines and Mrs. Warren have gone as models for a magazine. Mr. Peach has gone salesman. Mr. Vey and Mr. Major have gone as chefs in a chinese restaurant, and Mr. Russell is still our poor old principal.
