We, the members of the yearbook committee are very excited about producing yet another edition of the Tiger Roar. We have all worked together co-operatively in order to produce this edition. The venture was time consuming, but well worth it. We would like to extend a big thank-you to all who participated in putting together the Tiger Roar. At this point we would like to extend congratulations to the graduates and wish them every success in the future.

On a final note, we would like to say that in order to achieve success in something, you need to devote time, talent, energy and commitment. You will not be disappointed. This edition of the Tiger Roar is an indication of such success.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Students:

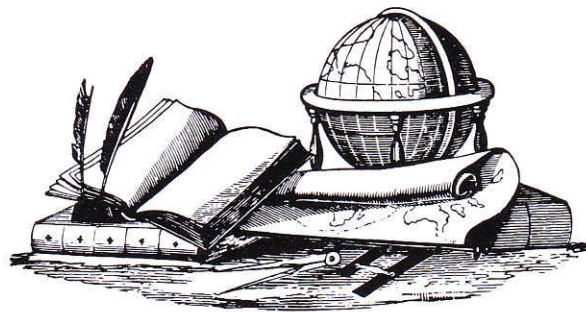

Thank you for the opportunity of contributing to your yearbook. A yearbook provides an excellent record of most significant events of the school year and, in future years, will serve as a treasured reminder of those glorious school days.

May I also take this opportunity to extend my best wishes to the graduates of '92, and to wish you well in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

My congratulations to the yearbook staff on the production of Tiger Roar 92. I am very appreciative of the tremendous amount of time and effort required in creating such a quality magazine. You have good reason to be proud and I know that this book will become a treasured possession in the years to come.

My sincere congratulations to the graduating class. I will have many fond memories of my association with all of you.

Best wishes to you all.

Bill Russell

VICE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

My first year as Vice Principal of Little Heart's Ease School has been both enjoyable and challenging. I have met many capable students who have a world of opportunities open to them. To the students leaving this year I say take full advantage of those opportunities because if you do not, you, and you alone will always have to settle for something less than your potential. To those who will not be graduating this year, I strongly encourage you to take full advantage of your time remaining in school. This period of your life can be both enjoyable and rewarding --- it is up to you.

I would also like to recognize the contributions of parents over the past school year. It is only with your support and involvement that Little Heart's Ease School can be successful. This school has a very competent staff -- but to be effective they must have parents' support. On behalf of teachers and administration I thank these parents and look forward to their continued involvement.

Finally, I would like to extend best wishes to the graduates . . . the world is yours.

"ON GRADUATION DAY"

The high school band strikes up the march
And walking two by two
In tux and gowns the graduates
Move slowly into view

Fresh faced and young with eager eyes
That focus hopefully
Beyond their narrow little world
On what is yet to be

The boy most likely to succeed
Is certain that he will
The classroom scribe just wants the chance
To prove her writing skills

The volleyball captains sights are set
On bigger courts to play
The prettiest girl would like to see
Her name in lights someday

The would be doctor plans to hang
A shingle on his door
The prize debator wants her words
To reach the senate floor

All standing on the threshold
Where dreams will soon compete
With life's demands and challenges
That everyone must meet

And as we watch them walking
Slowly two by two
We pray that God goes with them
Whatever they may do

And that they keep within their hearts
Each step along the way
The spark of hope that lights their eyes
On Graduation Day

VALEDICTORIAN

Good evening school board members, teachers, special guests, parents, dates of graduates and fellow classmates. On behalf of our class I would like to welcome you to our graduation and the beginning of our adult lives. Our graduation is not entirely a celebration of the end of high school, but a turning point in all our lives. A great change is about to occur for all of us. We all feel very proud to have accomplished the goals we have set earlier in our lives and to have made such great friends as the years passed in school. We also feel very sad as we leave our friends and all the great memories we have shared. A large part of our great memories involve our teachers, from arguing with our principal's misdirected "statistics" to having classes upon classes of Mr. Baker's life travels. I have a poem that I would like to share with you, and I believe it describes the way we all feel right now:

"The day I began my education,
I have dreamt of my very own graduation.
Kindergarten, I walked through the doorway,
met my peers and began to play.
Never did I dream who we all would become,
at that age, thinking of that only seemed dumb.
As the years came and went our only concern was how great it was to have another year spent.

Maturing as the years went by,
it's not surprising the childish things we did on the sly.
Our teachers said to love the days that we are here,
don't try to hurry to our last and final year.
They say, "It'll come soon enough,
compared to the real world, school's not that tough."
But now the big day has finally arrived,
we are rewarded and we all feel a great pride.
Pride in our work and in our future lives
But we all know that the friends we have made is our greatest prize.

And that is so true, for the rest of our lives we will all remember the memories and friends we have made over the years in school.

In closing, I would like to thank the teachers for helping us organize this event, the clergy for taking time out of their busy schedule to be here tonight, the PTA, Lions club, Firemens Association, and other businesses who have had different contributions to our graduation.

I would especially like to thank the parents who have always supported us in everything we did.

Also, congratulations to my classmates and may everyone have a fantastic time at Grad '92!
